Fie on a husband sitting Still in the house at home!

Still in the house at home!

Give me a mariner filting

And flashing over the foam!

Give me a voice resounding

The songs of the brewy main!

Give me a free heart bounding

Evermore hither again!

Coming is better than going: But never was queen so grand As I while I watch him blowing Away from the lazy land.

I have wedded an ocean rover,
And with him I own the sea;
Yet over the waves come over
And anchor, my lad, by me,

Hark to his billowy laughter, Blithe on the homeward tidel Hark to it, heart! up and after, Hark to It, nearth up no.
Off to the harbor side:
Down through the resemany hollows
And over the sand hills, light
And swift as a scabird, follow:
And hel for a sail in sight!
